PART II—Section 4

Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence.]

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

S.R.O. 188, dated 14th May, 1957.—The following bye-laws for the regulation or prohibition of the stabling or herding of animals and for the licensing of premises for use as stables or cow-houses in the Amritsar Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Amritsar, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (11) and (37) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are published for general information the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:

Bye-laws for the stabling or herding of animals and for licensing of premises for use as stables or cow-houses in the Amritsar Cantonment.

1. Definitions—In these bye-laws—

- (a) "stable" means any house, shed, building or room in a house, shed, or building in which horses, ponies, mules or donkeys are lodged and fed.
- (b) "cow-house" means a house, shed or building in which horned cattle are lodged and fed.

2. No person shall use any stable or cow-house within the Cantonment for picketing of animals until a license has been granted for the same in the form appended to these bye-laws; provided that these bye-laws shall not apply to stables or cow-houses in which not more than two milch animals with their young ones upto one year age are kept for bonafide private use.

3. Every person desiring to take out such a license shall apply to the Executive Officer and the Executive Officer may grant the license or for reasons to be recorded in writing, may refuse it. The number of animals to be picketed in any premises shall be determined by the Executive Officer. The number and description of animals shall be written on the license.

4. Every license shall be deemed to be for a year ending on the 31st March next, after the date from which it is expressed to take effect.

5. No license shall be granted for any stable or cow-house which does not provide a superficial area of 40 square feet for each head of cattle authorised to be kept therein; provided that a license may be granted for an existing stall of lesser dimensions if, in the opinion of the Cantonment Board, it is provided with sufficient drainage and ventilation and is suitable for the purpose. No license shall be granted for premises for the accommodation of sheep or goats unless a space of at least 20 square feet is allowed for each animal.

6. The floors of all premises licensed under these bye-laws shall be paved with asphalt stone with cement pointing, flag-stones set in cement, or some other suitable impervious material approved by the Cantonment Executive Officer.

7. A licence shall not be granted for any premises situated below any place which is used for human habitation, unless the ceiling of the said premises is separated from the floor of such building by an unbroken layer of at least 3 inches of concrete, stone, brick or mud.

8. A license shall not be granted for any premises within 100 feet from any bakery, or licensed butcher's shop if in the opinion of the Health Officer the grant of such license is, from the sanitary point of view, injurious.

9. Every licensee shall deposit, or cause to be deposited the dung and dried refuse from the licensed premises in such place or places as the Cantonment Executive Officer may fix for this purpose, or dispose of it in any manner as is approved by the Cantonment Executive Officer. No dung or liquid matter or washed water shall be permitted to flow into any public drain nor shall it be deposited in any public receptacle.

10. The licensee shall not permit any syce or any other person to cook food in the licensed premises or to use them for human habitation, provided that one or more attendants to be specified in the license may be permitted to sleep on the licensed premises to prevent any accident among the animals.

11. Every licensee shall cause the licensed premises to be cleaned out daily between the hours of 6 and 7 A.M. from 1st April to 30th September and of 7 and 8 A.M. from 1st October to 31st March and shall also cause the walls and ceiling thereof to be lime washed once every six months.

12. The Cantonment Executive Officer may suspend or cancel any license for a breach of any of the provisions of these bye-laws.

13. The licensee shall give every facility to the Cantonment Executive Officer, the Health Officer or any other officer or servant appointed by the Cantonment Board in this behalf, to inspect the licensed premises, and the animals kept thereon at any reasonable time.

14. On the occurrence of any out-break of infectious disease among the cattle kept on the licensed premises the licensee shall immediately inform the Cantonment Executive Officer of the fact and shall segregate the animals affected pending his orders.

15. Any person committing a breach of any of these bye-laws, shall, on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and, in the case of continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

S.R.O. 192, dated 15th May, 1957.—The following bye-laws for the regulation and control of loud-speakers in the Jammu Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Jammu in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (28), (38) and (39) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924) are published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284, of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION AND CONTROL OF LOUD-SPEAKERS IN THE JAMMU CANTONMENT

1. No person shall make use of any loud-speaker whether stationary or fitted to any moving vehicle or other object within the limits of the Jammu Cantonment, except under and in accordance with the permission in writing of the Executive Officer:

Provided that no such permission shall be necessary for the use of any loud-speaker for any official purpose.

2. Any application for obtaining permission to use a loud-speaker shall be submitted to the Executive Officer who may, with due regard to the interests of general public refuse or grant permission and in granting such permission he may impose any reasonable conditions in respect of the use of the said apparatus. The Board may from time to time lay down instructions for the guidance of the Executive Officer in the matter.

3. Any permission given or conditions imposed under these bye-laws may be withdrawn or varied by the Executive Officer where such withdrawal or variation is in his opinion, necessary in the interests of the general public.

4. Any permission given under these bye-laws shall be valid only so far as it does not violate the orders, if any, for the time being in force, issued by a competent Magistrate, banning or restricting the use of loud-speakers within the Cantonment.

5. Any person aggrieved by an order of the Executive Officer, made under these bye-laws, may appeal to the Cantonment Board within ten days of the date of communication of such order to him.

6. For the purpose of these bye-laws "Loud-speaker" shall include any electrically or mechanically operated means of producing loud noises.

7. Penalty.—The contravention of any provisions of these bye-laws or of any condition of any provision imposed under these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a continued contravention with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
